PROCEEDINGS AND REPORTS

OF THE

JOHN F. SLATER FUND

FOR YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 1926

"It is my wish that this trust be administered in no partisan, sectional, or sectarian spirit, but in the interest of a generous patriotism and an enlightened Christian faith.

I am encouraged to the execution in this charitable foundation of a long-cherished purpose, by the eminent wisdom and success that has marked the conduct of the Peabody Education Fund in a field of operation not remote from that contemplated by this trust. I shall commit it to your hands, deeply conscious how insufficient is our best forecast to provide for the future that is known only to God, but humbly hoping that the administration of it may be so guided by divine wisdom as to be, in its turn, an encouragement to philanthropic enterprise on the part of others, and an enduring means of good to our beloved country and to our fellowmen."

JOHN F. SLATER, March 4, 1882.

Colleges

In his report the President dealt mainly with the condition that has arisen, almost suddenly, in the colleges that now offer a full four-year course. The number of students entered for a full four-year course has, within the past four years, more than doubled. There has been a corresponding increase in the need for teachers to do college work, and for money to pay adequate salaries. It has been found that some college teachers are receiving salaries as low as $900 a year. The average seems to be about $1,300. Generally, not always, room and board are supplied. In view of this condition the question was raised whether it would not be wise for the Slater Board, after appropriating the necessary contribution for County Training Schools, to devote the balance of income to aiding, even though in small amounts, a certain number of colleges in their efforts to retain or secure competent professors. It was suggested that we might make a contribution toward the salary of the professor in English, or some one of the Sciences. The hope was expressed that this action might perhaps serve to call attention to the need and thus stimulate the larger giving that must come in some way.

Private Secondary Schools

Regret was expressed that this plan would make necessary the discontinuance of appropriations to certain private secondary schools which have for a long while been doing fine service and have received aid from the Slater Fund. Many smaller schools of this class have become County Training Schools. Others of a larger type have connected themselves with some religious body. A few have been closed. In some places the County Training Schools, which are public schools, have become sufficiently advanced to aid in supplying the demand for secondary education which formerly depended entirely upon private institutions. There is, however, still a place for good secondary private schools, and most of those still existing deserve support. The withdrawal of a contribution from the Slater Fund would be made only in view of what seems at present a more pressing need.

Following the report, the Committee on Education submitted the appropriations recommended by the Committee for the year ending September 30, 1927, and after full discussion the recommendations were unanimously approved and adopted.

REPORTS

COUNTY TRAINING SCHOOLS

The beginning of these schools dates back to the session 1911-12. They have been established by county superintendents and school boards, with the coöperation of the Slater Fund acting through the State Agents in the Departments of Education. The General Education Board assists in supplying needed industrial equipment and in erecting work-shops, dormitories and teachers' homes. Aid in payment of salaries made through the Slater Fund has been received from both the General Education Board and the Carnegie Corporation. At many of the schools the Rosenwald Fund coöperates in the erection of buildings.

The Slater Fund contributes $500 for salaries with the understanding that

1—The school property shall belong to the state, county or district, and the school shall be a part of the public school system.

2—There shall be an appropriation for salaries of not less than $1,000 from public funds raised by state, county, or district taxation.

3—The length of term shall be at least eight months.

4—The teaching shall extend through the eighth year, with the intention of adding grades as soon as it shall be possible to make such extension.

The following comparison shows the growth of these schools in the fifteen years since the first four were started:

	1911-12	1925-26
Number of schools	4	275
Number of teachers	20	1,889
Total receipts for all purposes.....	$11,369	$1,684,315
Salaries paid from Public Funds.....	3,344	970,935
Salaries paid from outside aid.....	2,000	105,000
Average salary	267	626

List of the 275 Schools for the Session 1925-26.

The figure accompanying the name of the county shows the number of years the school has been on the list.

The asterisk (*) shows the schools having a four-year high school course. There are 58.

The dagger (†) indicates that the school now receives only $100 from the Slater Fund, this amount to be spent in repairs or equipment. There are 44. Some schools which have long been on the list receive a larger amount, and for salaries, because of the addition of grades.

The letter d shows the schools having dormitories. There are 42.

The letter h shows the schools having teachers' homes. There are 83.

TOWN AND CITY SCHOOLS

Appropriations amounting to $6,000 ($3,000 being contributed by the General Education Board) were made to local Boards of Education for the promotion of industrial work in thirty-six town and city schools. These appropriations were made with the understanding that at least an equal amount should be devoted to this purpose from public school funds.

The distribution by States was as follows: Ark., $1,000; Ga., $250; Ky., $300; La., $245; Miss., $1,000; N. C., $1,405; S. C., $250; Tenn., $500; Texas, $800; Va., $250.

The appropriations to town and city schools have served a good purpose in stimulating local effort. But the same need no longer exists. There has been constant improvement in the buildings and equipment of these schools.

PRIVATE AND DENOMINATIONAL SCHOOLS

A list of these schools, with amounts donated by the Slater Fund in 1925-26, aggregating $6,600, has been given in a former report. For convenience of reference the list is reprinted here with names of the principals:

Americus Institute, F. R. Lampkin (1926), Americus, Ga.
Bettis Academy, Rev. A. W. Nicholson, Trenton, S. C.
Calhoun Colored School, Miss Charlotte R. Thorn, Calhoun, Ala.
Farmers Improvement Agri. School, R. L. Smith, Wolfe City, Texas.
Florida N. & I. Institute, N. W. Collier, St. Augustine, Fla.
Ft. Valley H. & I. School, H. A. Hunt, Ft. Valley, Ga.
Penn N. I. and A. School, Miss Rossa B. Cooley, Frogmore, S. C.
Stillman Institute, Rev. R. A. Brown, Tuscaloosa, Ala.
St. Augustine's School, Rev. Edgar M. Goold, Raleigh, N. C.
St. Paul N. and I. School, Rev. James S. Russell, Lawrenceville, Va.
Voorhees N. and I. School, J. E. Blanton, Denmark, S. C.

The total enrollment in the above eleven schools was 4,496, of whom 1,967 were boarding pupils and 1,511 in high school grades. There was an encouraging increase in the number of high-school pupils. St. Augustine's reported 28 college students and St. Paul 35.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

For the session of 1925-26 the Slater Board made appropriations to seventeen colleges, giving an aggregate amount of $22,250. The appropriations to Hampton and Tuskegee were on account of the first payment of donation to the Campaign Fund. The list is as follows:

Allen University, David H. Sims, Columbia, S. C.
Atlanta University, Rev. Myron W. Adams, Atlanta, Ga.
Fisk University, Fayette A. McKenzie, Nashville, Tenn.
Hampton Institute, Rev. James E. Gregg, Hampton, Va.
Jackson College, Z. T. Hubert, Jackson, Miss.
Leland College, Rev. John B. Watson, Baker, La.
Livingstone College, W. J. Trent, Salisbury, N. C.
Morehouse College, John Hope, Atlanta, Ga.
Morris College, Rev. J. J. Starks, Sumter, S. C.
Morris Brown University, John H. Lewis, Atlanta, Ga.
Shaw University, Rev. Joseph L. Peacock, Raleigh, N. C.
Spelman College, Miss Lucy Hale Tapley, Atlanta, Ga.
Talladega College, Rev. F. A. Sumner, Talladega, Ala.
Texas College, W. R. Banks, Tyler, Texas.
Tougaloo College, Rev. William T. Holmes, Tougaloo, Miss.
Tuskegee Institute, Robert R. Moton, Tuskegee, Ala.
Wiley College, Rev. M. W. Dogan, Marshall, Texas.

As stated elsewhere the outstanding fact about the colleges is the remarkable increase in the number of students in regular college classes looking to degree. This growth in college work has added greatly to the need for increase in salary expenses. It is evident that if the demands for college education continue to increase as they have been increasing during the past five years, and if competent faculties are to be employed, the colleges will require a very considerable increase in their resources.

The following tables tell certain facts in regard to the institutions which received appropriations from the Slater Fund, 1925-26.
